Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Principles for Which the American, Revolution Was Fought: An Address Before the Ohio Society Sons of the Revolution Delivered at the Queen City Club; Cincinnati, Ohio February 22 1904 Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Ohio Society Sons of the Revolution: The incorporators of the Society of the Sons of the Revolution, in their announcement of the reasons for the formation of the society, declared that they sought to develop and nourish a true patriotism and an honorable pride of lineage among those whose ancestors distinguished themselves in the perilous days of our national struggle for independence; that our ancestors did their part; they gave us the start; it is for us to keep up the impulse, and in no manner can we better further their work than by informing ourselves of what they did. The announcement concludes with this appeal: Let this Society, by drinking in the spirit of our ancestors strive, not as the Romans did for the mastery of the whole world, but for the mastery of everything ignoble among us: for purity of government, honesty in office and wisdom in our nation s councils. These selections from the announcement of the purpose to be accomplished by this organization are made to justify the selection of the subject to-night, by showing that the selection has been made in conformity to both the letter and the spirit of such announcement. To appreciate the effect upon the minds of the American colonists of the English legislation, which was the immediate cause of the American Revolution, it is necessary, in a general way at least, to understand the surroundings and the character of the...
