Crossover Publications LLC. Paperback. Condition: New. 210 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.5in. x 0.5in. Why do we believe as we believe Why do we attend one church and not another Many people follow church traditions or family customs but never actually make an informed choice for themselves concerning religious beliefs. Since we are saved by divine grace, does it really matter how we live Did the Reformation truly renounce Catholicism or restore primitive Christianity Many people attend church year after year, yet do not have a good understanding of the faith that they profess. Throughout the book, In Search of Clarity, author Steven Hutson has decided to question and challenge traditional thinking and ask the question, why. In hope of finding a full life moving forward, he opens the books and turns the tables on many sacred cows that have previously been left alone. Whether you are a seeker or in the midst of your journey this book will shed a great deal of light on the path before you. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
