THE BIBLE I THOUGHT I KNEW: DOES THE BIBLE REALLY SAY THAT? (PAPERBACK)

Peter B. Nagy, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Is God any less God, or is the Bible any less God's Word .if Jesus did not carry the cross, if Mary Magdalene was not a prostitute, if Lucifer was never the devil's name, if Delilah did not cut Samson's hair, if every Israelite was not required to tithe, if angels do not have wings, if the crucifixion was not on a Friday, if YHWH is not three separate individual persons, if Abraham had six more children after Sarah died, if Sunday is not the new Sabbath, if Elijah did not ride a chariot of fire straight to heaven without dying, if the Bible does not even mention a seven year tribulation period, or if the Israelites had more to eat for forty years than just manna? As you well know, incomplete information can lead to faulty conclusions, allowing genuine and well-meaning people to perpetuate false teaching without even realizing it. With a close examination concerning the extremism that continues on certain church topics; our research identifies specific discrepancies, is designed to stimulate curiosity and challenge complacency, and focuses upon profound evidence that should not be ignored. We include all the names, dates, places, and verses; so any reader from the beginning believer to the advanced scholar can look it up and verify it for themselves. We feel that there is no secret Bible knowledge or understanding that is not available to us all. Therefore, all this information should be common knowledge and a starting point for believers, not a shock to them after 30 years of warming a pew. This book was written to speak to this generation in a unique fashion amidst all the traditions and...
