

The Horsemen (Paperback)

By Terry Nelson

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The wealthy Endicotts, led by the oldest brother, Edward, contract a steamboat to take their large family, servants and horses, up the Missouri river to establish their business in the new frontier. But their dream ends after a vicious attack on the boat by the Nathan Hawks gang, which includes the brutal brother and sister half breeds, Stone Face and Dark Sky. All of the Endicotts and servants are massacred, except for young, Glory Endicott and the beautiful teacher, Janey Shire who are taken hostage. Soon after, a band of horsemen led by the legendary Texas Ranger, Captain Tully Slay, along with Tyke Flannery, an Irish freedom fighter, Big Robbie, a former slave with a mysterious past, two riflemen, Benny Link and Evan Mooney, and an old Comanche scout, Magpie, follow the gang through Texas into Mexico. By the time they have reached the Rio Grande they are joined by two more Texas Rangers, and a Mexican hostage turned ally. As the Hawks gang waits for the arrival of the horsemen their gang is reinforced with vaqueros from the bandit,...
