All too often a budding budgeter will rush right out, buy up all the bargains they see and end up spending more than they would if they had thought about it first. A bargain is not a bargain unless you need it. Sadly, the experience is usually less than positive and they arrive home tired and dejected with an empty wallet yet again. The bargain products end up in the kitchen bin because they went bad before they could be used and the dream of staying within your budget disappears. Another scenario that occurs frequently is going shopping with a buddy or acquaintance presenting himself as a self-proclaimed expert....
