This heritage carries With it a grave responsibility to posterity. Can we, then, withhold the money necessary merely to prevent the decay or oblivion of that which their love and devotion inspired them to build? I say oblivion, having in mind such work as that of Mr. F. Bligh Bond, who, with the support of the Dean of Wells and other enthusiasts of the Somersetshire Natural History and Archaeological Society, has brought to light buried chapels, monuments, sculptures and encaustic tiles of the utmost interest even to the purely casual visitor at Glastonbury. Excavation, restoration, even mere preservation, are hard problems nowadays; funds are meagre and expenses high, and the smallest help is not too small.
