Excerpt: . . . 11 should exclude both fee petition cases and fee agreement cases for which there is outstanding development. While we agree that, in general, attorneys should receive their fees timely, there are cases in which the extra time needed to process the attorney fee payment is not within SSAs control. These cases include not only fee agreement cases with out-standing development, but virtually all fee petition cases, since the attorney is not required to file a request for payment until 60 days from the date of the decision, and may even request an extension beyond the 60 days. In addition, some cases take significantly longer to pay because of the need to develop additional evidence, such as proof of workers compensation payments. The estimated 123 million in proceeds from the 6. 3 percent assessment over the first 5 years would be directed to the title II trust funds. Thus, any restriction on SSAs ability to impose the assessment would result in a loss to the trust funds. For instance, in the case of...
