MARY S SONG: A MOTHER S STORY (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This is a story about the mother of Jesus. So many stories of Mary are lofty and surreal. The truth that I bring to life is her humanity and her complete and profound faith; and her reliance and love for Joseph, both, which help her to follow God s Will. This story is the perfect example of the importance of love and of family. The story begins with the arrangement of the marriage between Mary and Joseph. Then I continue with the angel s visit. I imagine what it was like for Mary; the fear and the ecstasy that moment brought to her; and Joseph s reaction and hesitation. For eighteen chapters I provide a window into this holy woman s life, Mary s joy, her sorrows, her deep admiration and devotion to her son. This is a very human story about Mary and her family and their very divine mission. I have kept the story flowing and descriptive but to the point. This makes the novel an easy read, which I am hopeful, will be re read in difficult times to encourage the reader when they feel discouraged. When I look at the gospels through Mary s eyes, I truly see the courage and absolute trust in God, that as Christians, we should have. .As Joseph walked down the quiet street, his mind and his heart was on Mary and her vision. He was so confused and distraught. Joseph loved Mary more then he had realized was possible. His heart nearly broke each time he thought about divorcing her. . .do you remember the scripture of the prophet Jeremiah? Mary could not speak, but nodded in affirmation against...
