

Her Calling (Paperback)

By Kaden Shay

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . In a world on the verge of being told that everything they once thought was merely myth is real, can one teenage girl cope with life changes she never saw coming? Seventeen year old Kyndle Callahan began her year as a typical high school senior. Well, as typical as a girl can be while living life as a werewolf. She wasn't bitten or scratched as most people believe all werewolves are made, no, she was born into the pack that's always been her extended family. She's never seen the people she grew up with as the monsters of myth and legend but everything in her life is thrown into a tailspin when her father springs some shocking news on her. Suddenly, reality as a werewolf is much scarier than the stories humans tell. Stunned by the prospect of spending her life bonded to someone she can't even stand sharing the same space with and devastated at the thought of losing the only love she's ever known, can Kyndle settle into who and what she...
