Across town, a worker draws a gun and opens fire on his fellow employees. Caleb has a personal and professional connection to the murders: a good friend, Maggie Wells, lives near the murdered woman and now fears for her own safety. And, after a bizarre suicide attempt, the gun-wielding mill worker becomes Calebs client. With the help of his brother, Sam, a deaf artist, Caleb uncovers the strange link between the two crimes in the form of another client: a disturbed teen age boy, the millworkers son. But Calebs investigation into these events draws him into a dark, confusing world of drive-by shootings, gangs, and street drugs. And Calebs efforts to protect his friend might just prove deadly-for Sam and for Caleb.
