By Harlow D Curtis

Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Transformation: A Brochure on the Teaching of Music to Children See illustration on page 47 performers on the piano are eternally smoothing music with their foot! Why not play with your pupil and run the pedal yourself and thus make him smooth it with his fingers? It is a wonderful way to lay a foundation for a musician; much better than the umbilical strangulation of your pupil's nascent talent with the groundwork of the prestidigitator's art. Many a musician can be developed at the pianoforte to whom the major piano solos are and always will be a closed book, and many a pianist there is who never was and never will be a musician. Let us have more musicians. Everybody gains. Nobody gets a stone for bread. Real pianists get a broader and more finely adjusted technic at the sacrifice of precocity only, and teachers will retain many more pupils and will take real delight in playing good music with them all the time. Such would be the immediate gain, if all teachers who understand and love the...
