What do you do when everything you thought you knew about yourself turns out to be a lie, forcing you to re-evaluate your life Do you face them Or do you run My name is Suzy. I am the girl who has always believed in fairytales, unicorns, and that wishing upon a shooting star would make all my dreams come true. I have always had faith that I would find my very own Prince Charming. I have always been certain that we all have a soul mate. . . that we will find our true love someday, and that we must never give up. But not that long ago, I started to wonder. . . What if my Prince is in fact. . . a Princess Why is it so hard to be seen for who I am Love is love, isn't it I have started to lose faith in my once so adamant beliefs: where is my one Where is the person who will be able to restore my faith in the fairy-tale and the happy-ever-afters Is New York...
