Xlibris Corporation. Paperback. Condition: New. 102 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.2in. For 14 years Paula Lucas lived what looked like an ideal life as an American overseas wife: A Newsweek photojournalist husband, worldwide travel, a successful advertising, marketing and PR business, and three beautiful sons. She also hides a terrible secret-the children suffered severe child abuse and Paula, horrific domestic violence, at the hands of her husband, making every day a nightmare. As the violence increased, so did her desperation. In 1997, she finally disclosed the abuse to her brother in California. Her family called the State Department, congress people and senators. Paula went to the American Embassy and pleaded for help. Their efforts were futile. Finally her chance to escape materialized, thanks to a thief who stole her husbands passport and money on a train in Germany, which caused her husband to be locked outside of the country. Paula searched her husbands offices for the childrens American passports which her husband had hidden. After a month of searching, she was about to give up. In despair, Paula sat sobbing with her face in her hands. Thats when she believes a guardian angel pointed her back to a file she had already checked, and inside, were the childrens passports. Without access to her own money, Paula forged her husbands signature on a check for just enough money to get them to her sisters house in Oregon. She also forged her husbands signature on documents giving her permission to leave the country with the children. She knew if she were caught, she would be put in prison, or worse. But she also knew that the possible damage when her husband returned was very high. In the middle of the night, with one suitcase and her three children, she took a...
